HEERF I (CARES) provides emergency funds to assist students in need due to the coronavirus pandemic. Per guidance from the federal government, the emergency grants will be distributed to students with exceptional financial need, based on their FAFSA and Estimated Family Contribution. Funds are intended to help students with tuition and fees, housing and food, course materials, technology related costs, health care, transportation and childcare expenses. HEERF Funds are not considered to be financial aid and do not affect a student's current or future financial aid eligibility.

- 7. Any instructions or guidance for students regarding the Emergency Financial Aid Grants.
